

Work together. Work better.

When your business and productivity applications work as one, it brings your people together and helps them to be more productive. Express Info can deploy Microsoft Dynamics 365 Business Central to enable your employees to be more productive and your business to be more efficient.

Realize business impacts faster with a Microsoft partner.

Work seamlessly with Microsoft 365 applications like Teams, Outlook & Excel.

Break down data silos with a single source of truth.

Be more productive by accessing documents faster.

Unite your people and processes

When business applications talk to each other, your technology brings your people together. Our experts can make that a reality with Dynamics 365 Business Central so your employees can work more efficiently and provide better customer experiences.

Discover how we can bring your data and your teams together.

Connect with our sales team to learn more: info@expressinfo.com

Accurate data. Smarter decisions.

Insights come from having the right data in the right place, at the right time, with the expertise to understand them. Unlock the potential of your accessible data – across all your applications. Express Info can train your users to leverage actionable insights to become a more efficient business that gives customers a world-class service experience.

Gain insights you can use from across your business.

See the the information you need exactly when and where you need it.

Use custom dashboards to interpret data and share it with the right teams.

We can customize dashboards so you can interpret data and share it with the right teams.

Gain insights from your data

Give your teams the power to make informed decisions and provide the best customer experiences with Express Info and Business Central. Put relevant data in their hands just when they need it with productivity and business applications that work as one.

Discover how we can bring your data and your teams together.

Connect with our sales team to learn more: info@expressinfo.com